YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance.

This duty, however, does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is common knowledge;
- that the Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his/her business, ought to know; and
- as to which compliance is waived by the Insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with this Duty of Disclosure and we, MetLife would not have entered into the contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it. For applications accepted from 28 June 2014 onwards, we can exercise the right to avoid the contract even if it would have provided you with cover on different terms.

If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may avoid the contract at any time.

An Insurer who is entitled to avoid a contract of life insurance may, within 3 years of entering into it, elect not to avoid it but to reduce the sum you have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to the Insurer.

We have the same rights if you make a misrepresentation to us.

We are required to treat some policies as comprising 2 or more separate conflicts of life insurance and elect whether to apply its rights to each contract separately. For example, TPD and income protection benefits may be treated as separate contracts. Additionally, default cover and any additional cover will also be treated separately.

ADDITIONAL RIGHTS FROM 28 JUNE 2014

For all cover except death cover received by members from 28 June 2014, we have the following additional rights if you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure or make a misrepresentation to us:

- Elect to reduce the sum insured according to a formula prescribed by the law at any time;
- If we have not avoided the contract or varied the sum insured, we can vary the contract in a way that places us in the same position we would have been if the non-disclosure or misrepresentation had not occurred.

We also have these additional rights for policies issued before 28 June 2014 if it agrees to:

- increase the sum insured; or
- provide additional kinds of insurance cover

but only to the extent of the variation.
